Working at the city council

You are seeking a new professional challenge?

Dresden is a federal state capital with a high quality of life as well as high levels of social and cultural diversity with more than 550,000 inhabitants. Baroque monuments and staggering art treasures merge with a vibrant science and research landscape. The vastness of the Elbe meadows, its castles and vineyards impresses countless visitors from Germany and abroad.

As an employer, the state capital of Dresden offers a wide range of different employment options and possibilities of personal development. The tasks are diverse, every day it is important to cooperate in structuring the city and its numerous civic issues.

What we offer:

- Family-friendly, flexible working hours
- Salary in accordance with collective wage agreements plus an annual special bonus
- Diverse further training opportunities
- An occupational pension
- Discounted ticket for the local public transport system (“Job ticket”)
- Health-promoting and preserving measures as part of our in-house health management system

The equal treatment of all applicants is not only a legal mandate for us, but also a matter of course. People with a foreign passport can also work for the City Council and are very welcome.
