Internship at the City Council

Internship at the City Council

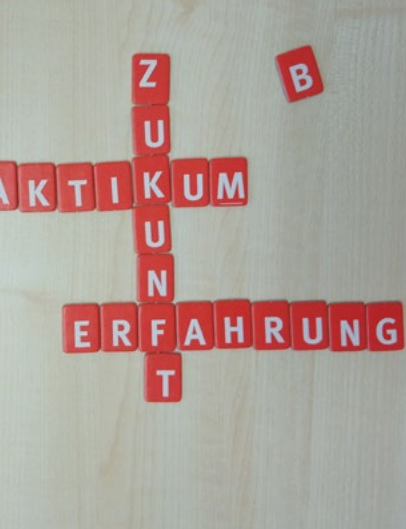

Dresden is a federal state capital with a high quality of life as well as high levels of social and cultural diversity with more than 550,000 inhabitants. Baroque monuments and staggering art treasures merge with a vibrant science and research landscape. The vastness of the Elbe meadows, its castles and vineyards impresses countless visitors from Germany and abroad. We invite you to cooperate in the structuring of a functioning and liveable city and city society!

You are in search of an exciting internship? We have a lot of vacancies for people who would like to gain work experience.

Everyone who has to complete a compulsory internship for the school, their training, retraining or studies, can send an application to us. This also applies to people making applications for language courses. It is also possible to apply for a vocational internship.

People with a foreign passport can also complete a compulsory internship at the City Council and are very welcome.

Important note: Due to the limited available capacities here it is not possible to provide voluntary internships. The internship places are assigned depending on the levels of availability after you have submitted your complete application.

Your application

Please send us the following documents when making your application:

- An application letter in which you introduce yourself
- Your curriculum vitae in tabular form
- Copies of certificates, if available
- Assessments and certificates, if available
- Proof that it is a compulsory internship or
- A university enrolment certificate (for students)

Please write the following in your application:

- when you want to do the internship
- what you would like to learn and
- in which office or which institution you would like to work.

You can find an overview of the offices and institutions at the City Council on the Internet at www.dresden.de/aemter. Depending on your interests, you can submit your application online to the respective offices and institutions or please send it directly by email to praktikum@dresden.de.

We look forward to receiving your application!
