

Migration and Asylum Matters Department

The Migration and Asylum Matters Department is responsible for supporting asylum seekers in immigration law matters during proceedings and thereafter until the residence permit is granted or their departure from the territory of the Federal Republic of Germany. The Department is also responsible for termination of the residence title of foreign citizens who must leave the country for reasons other than asylum proceedings.