Dresden Youth Advice Centre

Together for:

See what's going on!

Are you under 25 and still haven't decided which job is right for you? Do you need help to find your way on the education market or would you like to use your time meaningfully between two stages of training? Then you have come to the right place at Dresden Youth Advice Centre. Get information and advice from us. We are very familiar with the problems that can arise during transition between school and work, and we will do our best to support you.

Together we will find your way. So come and see what's going on!

your children's future

We can and should work together to shape young people's professional future. That is why you should support your child on their way from school into their future working life.

You know better than anyone your child's strengths and preferences. You are also welcome to find out more using the information and advice available from Dresden Youth Advice Centre.

We offer advice, placement and support for:

- ▶ Choosing and preparing for a career
- ▶ Finding the right apprenticeship
- ▶ Choosing the right course
- ▶ Choosing the right educational course in school
- ▶ Dealing with problems in school
- ▶ Overcoming personal difficulties

Choose a job you love, and you will never have to work a day in your life.

All under one roof

At Dresden Youth Advice Centre, important contacts work together for you, under one roof.

In real terms, that means many benefits for you through short channels and quick agreements. Our partners offer the following services:

Die Agentur für Arbeit (Employment Agency): Work and study information, careers advice, applicant-orientated trainee placement and support

Jobcenter: Advice and applicant-oriented placement in training and employment

Das Jugendamt (Youth Welfare Office): Youth advisory service, youth information about social and professional integration, placement in youth careers guidance offers

We are also there for you and can offer individual help in urgent cases.
